Relaxation

Friday

Settle into a beautifully restored 18th-century lodge.

Enjoy a welcome wine tasting at the lodge, led by a local sommelier who will introduce guests to the renowned wines of Provence.

A traditional Provençal dinner will be prepared and served on-site, offering guests their first taste of the local cuisine in the ambiance of the historic lodge.

Saturday

Explore a lively local market to select fresh, seasonal ingredients, with the guidance of our expert chef. Guests will learn about regional products and interact with local vendors.

Participate in a hands-on cooking class where you will prepare a traditional four-course Provençal menu, guided by Culinary O Mas's professional chef. Learn the techniques and flavors.

Dine on the four-course meal you've prepared, paired with local wines in an elegant and communal dining experience at the lodge.

Sunday

Start the day with a gourmet brunch featuring local cheeses, fresh pastries, and seasonal fruits prepared by the lodge’s chef.

Optional tour of a local vineyard, learn about winemaking in Provence, followed by tastings of exquisite regional wines, paired with light bites.

Enjoy a personalized lavender massage and unwind by the pool or take in the tranquil scenery surrounding the lodge.

Come together for an informal farewell gathering with light snacks.

Rainer

Culinary o'Mas chefs

Rainer, with his extensive experience in traditional cuisine, will be your chef for the weekend, offering both classic and innovative dishes crafted from fresh, local ingredients.

In addition to preparing your meals, he will lead a hands-on cooking class, where you'll learn to create a delicious four-course menu. Rainer trained at one of Munich's top restaurants and previously honed his skills at a renowned fish restaurant in Rügen, as well as perfecting his lobster dishes on the Channel Islands.

When he's not working in one of Europe's finest kitchens, you'll find him sailing on his own boat or offering gourmet catering on transatlantic voyages.

Stay at Le Mas Aigaliers

A beautifully restored 18th-century hunting lodge, combining rustic charm with modern amenities for the perfect blend of historic and contemporary comfort.

Surrounded by vineyards, and olive groves, offering a peaceful escape in the heart of Provence.

The lodge offers indoor & outdoor pool, sauna, spa services, and outdoor spaces for peaceful nature walks and relaxation.
